

HB 65 -- Property Tax Credit for Educational Expenses

Sponsor: Davis

This bill authorizes a real property tax credit for educational expenses incurred for a taxpayer's child or children when the taxpayer declines educational services provided by any public school district. The taxpayer must be a resident of this state, own real property within the district, and have at least one child living in the home to qualify for this credit.