

HB 70 -- Exemption from Certain High School Courses and Tests

Sponsor: Day

This bill exempts any high school student who transfers into the state from the statutory requirement for the state and federal government course and the exam on the Missouri Constitution upon acceptable documentation that the student has successfully completed the requirements in another state.