

HB 275 -- Domestic Violence

Sponsor: Robinson

This bill requires law enforcement officers responding to the scene of an alleged domestic violence incident to give written notice to the abused party of available judicial remedies for relief from adult abuse and available shelters for victims of domestic violence. Currently, victims must only be informed verbally.