

HB 532 -- American Studies Course Requirements for Public Higher Education

Sponsor: Cooper (158)

This bill requires students entering public higher education institutions after January 1, 2008, to take a three-hour American history course and a three-hour American literature course in order to graduate.