

HB 896 -- Traffic Violation Cases

Sponsor: Flook

This bill defines "traffic violation case," as it is used in Chapter 488, RSMo, as a nonfelony case filed under Chapter 301, 302, 304, 307, or 390, except for traffic offenses involving operating a motor vehicle or watercraft while intoxicated or under the influence of intoxicants or drugs, resulting in personal injury or property damage to another person, or while fleeing or attempting to elude an officer or when operating a vehicle with a counterfeited, altered, suspended, or revoked license.
