

HB 2503 -- Hunting

Sponsor: Roorda

This bill prohibits any person who owns, operates, or manages a facility that harbors animals from knowingly allowing any person who pays a fee to kill an animal that is tied or hobbled; staked or attached to any object; or confined in a box, pen, case, or other similar container or in a fenced or other area from which there is no reasonable means for the animal to escape. Any person who violates the provisions of the bill will be subject to a fine of up to $500 for the first violation and a term of imprisonment for up to one year or a fine of up to $1,000, or both for each subsequent violation.
