

HB 2592 -- Political Activities of Emergency Personnel

Sponsor: Portwood

This bill prohibits political subdivisions from regulating emergency personnel with regard to their membership in political organizations and their rights to attend political meetings, express political views, vote, and run for elective or appointive office in any political subdivision that does not have jurisdiction over the person's place of residence.

Political subdivisions are allowed to regulate the conduct of emergency personnel during work hours and while they are in uniform.