3 individual described in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 285.356, as appropriate,
4 if the leave period covers more than three consecutive workdays.

5 2. The employee shall provide a copy of such certification to the employer in a
6 timely manner, not later than thirty days after the first day of the leave. The employer
7 shall not delay the commencement of the leave on the basis that the employer has not yet
8 received the certification.

2 required to modify such policy if such policy offers an employee the option, at the
3 employee's discretion, to take paid sick leave that is at least equivalently beneficial to the 4 employee as the sick leave described in sections 285.350 to 285.375.

285.364. 1. Each employer shall at all times retain a posted notice setting forth
2 excerpts from, or summaries of, the pertinent provisions of sections 285.350 to 285.375,

13 (1) In conspicuous places on the premises of the employer where notices to 14 employees are customarily posted; or

17 be subject to a civil fine in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars for each separate 18 offense.

285.366. 1. It shall be unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right provided under sections 285.350 to 285.375.

2. It shall be unlawful for any employer to:

(2) Count the sick leave under a no-fault attendance policy.

3. It shall be unlawful for any person to discharge or in any other manner discriminate against or retaliate against any individual because such individual:

(1) Exercised or attempted to exercise any right provided under sections 285.350 to 285.375;

(2) Has filed an action, or has instituted or caused to be instituted any proceeding related to sections 285.350 to 285.375;

(3) Has given, or is about to give, any information in connection with any inquiry or proceeding relating to any right provided under sections 285.350 to 285.375;

285.368. 1. The attorney general may conduct an investigation to obtain voluntary conciliation of an alleged violation. Such an investigation shall not be a prerequisite to bringing an action in court.

2. Any employer who violates sections 285.350 to 285.375 shall be liable to any employee affected for damages equal to:

(1) The amount of any wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation denied or lost to such employee by reason of the violation; or

(2) In a case in which wages, salary, employment benefits, or other compensation have not been denied or lost to the employee, any actual monetary losses sustained by the employee as a direct result of the violation up to a sum equal to ten days of wages or salary for the employee;

(3) The interest on the amount described in subdivision (1) of this subsection calculated at the average prime rate charged by banks in the calendar year rounded to the nearest full percent;

(4) An additional amount as liquidated damages; and

(5) Equitable relief as may be appropriate, including employment, reinstatement, and promotion.

285.370. Nothing in sections 285.350 to 285.375 shall be construed to discourage an
2 employer from the adoption or retention of a paid leave policy more generous to the 3 employee than the one required by sections 285.350 to 285.375.

285.372. 1. The department shall develop and maintain a program of education

5 given by every employer to each employee.

285.375. Nothing in sections 285.350 to 285.375 shall be construed to modify,
2 eliminate, or otherwise abrogate any existing family leave policies, employment benefits,
3 or protections that employees may have pursuant to any employment contracts or collective
4 bargaining agreements, to the extent that the contracts and agreements provide greater
5 protections than those afforded under sections 285.350 to 285.375.
