JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment repealing sections 25(a), 25(d), and 25(e), of article V of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting three new sections in lieu thereof relating to the appellate judicial commission.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next 2 following the first Monday in November, 2010, or at a special election to be called by the 3 governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for 4 adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article V of the Constitution of the state of 5 Missouri:

Section A. Sections 25(a), 25(d), and 25(e), article V, Constitution of Missouri, are 2 repealed and three new sections adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 25(a), 25(d), and 3 25(e), to read as follows:

Section 25(a). Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of judge of any of the 2 following courts of this state, to wit: The supreme court, the court of appeals, or in the office of 3 circuit or associate circuit judge within the city of St. Louis and Jackson County and any other
4 judicial circuit outside of the city of St. Louis and Jackson County which has, in 5 accordance with the provisions of Section 25 (b) of this Article, elected to have their circuit
6 and associate circuit judges appointed by the governor in the manner provided in Section
7 25(a) of this Article, the governor shall fill such vacancy by appointing one of [three] five
8 persons possessing the qualifications for such office, who shall be nominated and whose names 9 shall be submitted to the governor by a nonpartisan judicial commission established and

10 organized as hereinafter provided. [If the governor fails to appoint any of the nominees within 11 sixty days after the list of nominees is submitted, the nonpartisan judicial commission making
12 the nomination shall appoint one of the nominees to fill the vacancy.] The governor may veto
13 the first list of nominees submitted by notifying the commission of his or her objection 14 within sixty days after the first list of nominees is submitted to the governor. The 15 commission shall thereafter submit a new list of nominees for the governor's consideration.
16 If the governor fails to appoint any of the nominees from the second list within sixty days 17 after the second list of nominees is submitted, the lieutenant governor shall appoint one of 18 the nominees on the second list to fill the vacancy. If the lieutenant governor fails to 19 appoint any of the nominees from the second list within sixty days after the second list of 20 nominees is submitted, the nonpartisan judicial commission charged with submitting the 21 nominations shall appoint one nominee from the second list of nominees to fill the vacancy.

Section 25(d). Nonpartisan judicial commissions whose duty it shall be to nominate and 2 submit to the governor names of persons for appointment as provided by sections 25(a)-(g) are 3 hereby established and shall be organized on the following basis: For vacancies in the office of 4 judge of the supreme court or of the court of appeals, there shall be one such commission, to be 5 known as "The Appellate Judicial Commission"; for vacancies in the office of circuit judge or 6 associate circuit judge of any circuit court subject to the provisions of sections 25(a)-(g) there
7 shall be one such commission, to be known as "The Circuit Judicial Commission", for each 8 judicial circuit which shall be subject to the provisions of sections 25(a)-(g); the appellate 9 judicial commission shall consist of [a judge of the supreme court selected by the members of 10 the supreme court, and the remaining members shall be] seven members chosen in the following
11 manner: The members of the bar of this state residing in each court of appeals district shall elect 12 one of their number to serve as a member of said commission, and the governor shall appoint one 13 citizen, not a member of the bar, from among the residents of each court of appeals district, to 14 serve as a member of said commission, and an additional citizen, from anywhere in the state
15 and the members of the commission shall select one of their number to serve as [chairman]
16 chair. Every appointment to the appellate judicial commission shall be subject to the 17 advice and consent of the majority of the senate, who shall confirm or reject such 18 appointment within thirty legislative days of appointment by the governor. Each circuit 19 judicial commission shall consist of five members[, one of whom shall be the chief judge of the 20 district of the court of appeals within which the judicial circuit of such commission, or the major 21 portion of the population of said circuit is situated and the remaining four members shall be]
22 chosen in the following manner: The members of the bar of this state residing in the judicial 23 circuit of such commission shall elect two of their number to serve as members of said 24 commission, and the governor shall appoint [two] three citizens, [not members of the bar,] from

25 among the residents of said judicial circuit, two of whom shall not be members of the bar, to 26 serve as members of said commission, the members of the commission shall select one of their 27 number to serve as [chairman] chair; and the terms of office of the members of such commission 28 shall be [fixed by law, but no law shall increase or diminish the term of any member then in 29 office] four years expiring on January fifteenth of the fourth year, and each four-year term
30 shall begin at the expiration of the term immediately preceding it. No law or court rule 31 shall increase, diminish, or otherwise adjust the terms of any member. At the time of the 32 adoption of this section, current terms of members of all such commissions shall expire and 33 new members shall be selected in accordance with this section. Every appointment to a 34 circuit judicial commission shall be subject to the advice and consent of the majority of the 35 senate, who shall confirm or reject such appointment within thirty legislative days of 36 appointment by the governor. No member of any such commission [other than a judge] shall 37 hold any public office, and no member shall hold any official position in a political party. Every 38 such commission may act only by the concurrence of a majority of its members. The members 39 of such commission shall receive no salary or other compensation for their services but they shall 40 receive their necessary traveling and other expenses incurred while actually engaged in the 41 discharge of their official duties. All such commissions shall discharge their duties in 42 accordance with the policy of promoting openness and public access. The list of applicants 43 for any judicial vacancy shall be a public record and their names shall be posted on the 44 supreme court's web site. All information available to such commissions in their 45 proceedings shall be made available to the governor. All hearings, debates, and votes of 46 the commission shall be open to the public and to the press, and such meetings shall be held 47 on no less than seventy-two hours public notice. Every applicant nominated and whose 48 names shall be submitted to the governor as provided in section 25(a) of this article shall 49 be subject to a background check, including a criminal check, which shall not be a public
50 record but shall be available to the commission and the governor. Sessions or 51 communications not open to the public shall be limited to those areas relating to the 52 interviews by the commission, internal deliberations of the commission concerning the final 53 list of five qualified persons to be submitted to the governor, matters of national security,
54 or allegations, not to include convictions, of criminal or morally reprehensible behavior.
55 All such commissions shall be administered, and the procedures for all elections provided for 56 under this section shall be held and regulated, under such rules as the [supreme court shall 57 promulgate] commission shall establish so long as such rules are in accordance with the 58 provisions of this article and not superseded by subsequently enacted legislation.

2 Section 25(e). All expenses incurred in administering sections 25(a)-(g), when approved by the [supreme court] commissioner of administration, shall be paid out of the state treasury.

3 The [supreme court] commission shall certify such expense to the commissioner of 4 administration, who shall draw his warrant therefor payable out of funds not otherwise 5 appropriated.
