

HB 256 -- Condominium Property

Sponsor: Scharnhorst

Currently, unanimous approval is required from all condominium unit owners when amending a condominium's declaration with regard to special declarant rights or changing the number of units, the boundaries of any unit, the allocated interests of a unit, or the uses to which any unit is restricted. This bill reduces the consent requirement to two-thirds of the owners.