- (2) Requires all organizations licensed to conduct bingo games to pay a $50 annual license fee;
- (3) Authorizes the Missouri Gaming Commission to establish the daily prize amount for nonprogressive bingo games;
- (4) Removes the provision allowing licensees to require players to purchase more than a standard pack of bingo cards in order to participate in a bingo game;

- (10) Requires all licensees to make quarterly reports to the commission;
- (11) Changes the record retention requirement from three to two years;
- (12) Increases the one-time application fee for a manufacturer's license to an amount not to exceed $5,000 and the renewal fee to an amount not to exceed $1,000;

(13) Requires the applicant for a supplier's or manufacturer's license to be responsible for all investigative costs incurred by the commission; and

(14) Repeals the 2% gross receipts sales tax on pull-tab cards.

FISCAL NOTE: No impact on General Revenue Fund in FY 2010, FY 2011, and FY 2012. Estimated Cost on Other State Funds of Less than $592,500 in FY 2010, Less than $712,500 in FY 2011, and Less than $712,500 in FY 2012.

PROPOSERS: Supporters of House Bill 620 say that the number of bingo operators is dwindling, approximately from 900 to 380. By repealing the gross receipts tax, it will free up more money for prizes and community programs.

Supporters of House Bill 671 say that the bingo laws are antiquated and have too many restrictions. Charitable organizations are having trouble conducting bingo games. By loosening the law, it will allow these organizations to provide more assistance to the local communities.

Testifying for HB 620 were Representatives Hoskins (121), Salva, and Dougherty; Mike Michaelson, Elks Lodges of Missouri; and Dewey Riehn, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Missouri Department and Missouri Association of Veterans Organizations.

Testifying for HB 671 were Representative Lair; Missouri Gaming Commission, Department of Public Safety; Dewey Riehn, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, Missouri Department; Dick Sopp, Shriners International; and David Nevill and Tom Murphy, Missouri Association of Charitable Games.

OPPOSERS: Those who oppose House Bill 671 say that any changes in the gaming laws should go to a vote of the people.
