

HB 622 -- Court Records for Sexual Offenses

Sponsor: Roorda

Currently, a victim of sexual assault, domestic assault, stalking, or forcible rape is protected from being identified by having his or her name redacted from the public record prior to disclosure to the public. This bill specifies that the name of any defendant in a criminal case for these crimes will not be considered identifying information and will not be redacted from court records.