

HB 682 -- SCHOOL MAKE-UP DAYS DUE TO INCLEMENT WEATHER (Swinger)

COMMITTEE OF ORIGIN: Committee on Elementary and Secondary Education

Currently, schools are required to make up the first six days of school lost due to inclement weather and half of the additional days lost in excess of the first six. This bill allows an exception for the 2008-2009 school year by requiring schools to make up half of the remaining lost days up to a total of 10 full make-up days.

The bill contains an emergency clause.

FISCAL NOTE: No impact on state funds in FY 2010, FY 2011, and FY 2012.
