

HB 772 -- Election Ballots

Sponsor: Grill

This bill establishes procedures for election officials to list candidates for statewide office or state senator or representative in varying order on the ballot. Each candidate must be listed in as many different positions on the ballot as there are candidates for an office. The Secretary of State will establish procedures for counting votes when electronic voting is used for these ballots, and any increased costs for printing the ballots will be paid by the state.