

HB 781 -- Property Reassessment after a Disaster

Sponsor: Frame

This bill requires the immediate reassessment of real or personal property that has a significantly reduced true value in money because of a fire, natural disaster, or any other similar event. The taxes due must be prorated based on the taxes imposed on the property before and after the destruction of the property.