

SCS HB 861 -- ASSISTANT ADJUTANTS GENERAL

This bill allows the Adjutant General to assign the number of assistant adjutants general that are authorized by the rules and regulations of the National Guard Bureau of the United States. The assistants are required, if they qualify, to hold military rank as may be authorized and approved for the positions by the bureau. Currently, the Adjutant General may only assign two assistants.