

HB 870 -- Fine Arts Education

Sponsor: Dixon

This bill requires the Division of School Improvement within the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education to develop a program to have a fine arts education consultant available at each regional professional development center. The duties of the consultant include, but are not limited to, working with school districts to develop fine arts staff and curriculum, coordinating services from other entities involved in fine arts education and integration, and contributing to in-service training.