

HB 961 -- Unemployment Compensation Benefits

Sponsor: Schoeller

This bill specifies that a claimant for unemployment compensation benefits will be deemed to have been discharged from employment for misconduct and will be disqualified for waiting week credit and benefits if he or she provided false information on his or her employment application regarding felony convictions or job qualifications.