

HB 1067 -- Animal Abuse

Sponsor: Schoeller

If a person is charged with animal abuse based on injury to the real or personal property of another person, this bill specifies that it will be an affirmative defense to all criminal liability that the injury totaled less than $3,500 or less than the jurisdictional maximum of the appropriate small claims court, whichever is greater.