

HB 1100 -- Candidate Filing Procedures

Sponsor: Dougherty

Currently, election authorities may allow candidates filing for certain political subdivision or special district elections on the first day of filing to determine by random drawing the order in which their names will appear on the ballot. This bill requires the election authority to use this random drawing procedure.