

HB 1132 -- Green Certification for the Construction or Renovation of Certain Public School Buildings

Sponsor: Holsman

This bill prohibits the Missouri Health and Educational Facilities Authority within the Office of Administration from providing any funding to a public school district for the renovation or construction of a public school building unless the district obtains certification from the United States Green Building Council under the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design Green Building Rating System for the project.