

HB 1179 -- Safe Place for Newborns Act

Sponsor: Storch

Currently, up to five days after the birth of a child, a parent may voluntarily relinquish the child by safely delivering physical custody of the baby to certain persons without being prosecuted for child abandonment. This bill increases the time period to up to 30 days after the birth of a child.