

HB 1968 -- Anatomical Gifts by Inmates

Sponsor: Biermann

This bill establishes the William John Yates Law which allows a person who is or has been incarcerated to be a voluntary donor of an anatomical gift. Coercing or offering incentives, including a reduced sentence or early release, to an incarcerated person to be a donor will be considered an involuntary donation.