

HB 2069 -- Registration Fees for Vacant Residential Structures

Sponsor: Morris

Currently, municipalities and St. Louis County are authorized to impose a semi-annual registration fee of up to $200 on owners of residential and commercial property with a residential structure that has been vacant for at least six months and has multiple housing code violations. This bill authorizes the City of St. Louis to establish a semi-annual fee by ordinance in an amount of up to $600.
