

HB 2339 -- Employee Campaign Contributions

Sponsor: Roorda

This bill requires any political subdivision of the state to allow payroll deductions for a contribution to a continuing committee as defined in Section 130.011, RSMo, if 10 or more employees request it and the political subdivision has a payroll deduction system to be consistent with the current requirement for private employers.