

HJR 31 -- Judicial Decisions

Sponsor: Wells

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment requires courts, when making judicial decisions, to uphold and adhere to the law as provided in the United States Constitution; the Missouri Constitution; the United States Code; federal regulations; and, if necessary, the law of another state if that state's laws do not include Sharia law. Courts are prohibited from considering legal precepts of other nations or cultures and cannot consider international law or Sharia law.
