

HB 1208 -- Child Support

Sponsor: Barnes

This bill specifies that the termination of parental rights due to a plea or conviction of forcible rape cannot extinguish or legally bar the ordering and enforcement of a child support obligation against the offending parent for a child born as a result of the rape.