

HB 1271 -- Penalties for Certain Crimes

Sponsor: Houghton

This bill changes the laws regarding the penalty for certain crimes. In its main provisions, the bill:

- (1) Changes the crime of trespass in the first degree from a class B misdemeanor to a class A misdemeanor;
- (2) Changes the crime of trespass in the second degree from an infraction to a class B misdemeanor; and
- (3) Changes the crime of false impersonation from a class B misdemeanor to a class D felony unless the person represents himself or herself to be a law enforcement officer or public servant, as defined in these provisions, when it is changed from a class A misdemeanor to a class C felony.
