

HB 1531 -- Newborn Screening Requirements

Sponsor: Kirkton

This bill requires, by January 1, 2013, the Department of Health and Senior Services to expand, subject to appropriations, the newborn screening requirements to include severe combined immune deficiency disease (SCID), also known as bubble boy disease, prior to the newborn being discharged from a health care facility.