

HB 962 -- Livestock

Sponsor: Richardson

This bill revises the definition of "livestock" as it applies to the Missouri Livestock Marketing Law and meat inspections to include cervids documented as obtained from a legal source and not from the wild and raised in confinement for human consumption or animal husbandry.