

SB 208 -- RE-ENTRY INTO FOSTER CARE

This bill specifies that if a youth younger than 21 years old is released from the custody of the Children's Division within the Department of Social Services and after the release it appears that it would be in the youth's best interest to have his or her custody returned to the division, the juvenile officer, the division, or the youth can petition the court to return custody of the youth to the division until the youth is 21 years old. Currently, this provision applies to a child younger than 18 years old.
