

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 54

97TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

4827H.02C

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment repealing sections 2, 5, 7, and 9 of article III of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting four new sections in lieu thereof relating to the general assembly.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2014, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to article III of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Sections 2, 5, 7, and 9, article III, Constitution of Missouri, are repealed and four new sections adopted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 2, 5, 7, and 9, to read as follows:

Section 2. The house of representatives shall consist of one hundred sixty-three members and, beginning with the one hundred second general assembly, one hundred twenty members, elected at each general election and apportioned in the following manner: Within sixty days after the population of this state is reported to the President for each decennial census of the United States and, in the event that a reapportionment has been invalidated by a court of competent jurisdiction, within sixty days after notification by the governor that such a ruling has been made, the congressional district committee of each of the two parties casting the highest vote for governor at the last preceding election shall meet and the members of the committee shall nominate, by a majority vote of the members of the committee present, provided that a majority of the elected members is present, two members of their party, residents in that district, as nominees for reapportionment commissioners. Neither party shall select more than one

12 nominee from any one state legislative district. The congressional committees shall each submit 13 to the governor their list of elected nominees. Within thirty days the governor shall appoint a 14 commission consisting of one name from each list to reapportion the state into one hundred and 15 sixty-three representative districts and, beginning with the one hundred second general
16 assembly, one hundred twenty districts, and to establish the numbers and boundaries of said 17 districts.

18 If any of the congressional committees fails to submit a list within such time the governor 19 shall appoint a member of his own choice from that district and from the political party of the 20 committee failing to make the appointment.

21 Members of the commission shall be disqualified from holding office as members of the 22 general assembly for four years following the date of the filing by the commission of its final 23 statement of apportionment.

24 For the purposes of this article, the term congressional district committee or 25 congressional district refers to the congressional district committee or the congressional district 26 from which a congressman was last elected, or, in the event members of congress from this state 27 have been elected at large, the term congressional district committee refers to those persons who 28 last served as the congressional district committee for those districts from which congressmen 29 were last elected, and the term congressional district refers to those districts from which 30 congressmen were last elected. Any action pursuant to this section by the congressional district 31 committee shall take place only at duly called meetings, shall be recorded in their official 32 minutes and only members present in person shall be permitted to vote.

33 The commissioners so selected shall on the fifteenth day, excluding Sundays and 34 holidays, after all members have been selected, meet in the capitol building and proceed to 35 organize by electing from their number a [chairman] chair, vice [chairman] -chair and secretary 36 and shall adopt an agenda establishing at least three hearing dates on which hearings open to the 37 public shall be held. A copy of the agenda shall be filed with the clerk of the house of 38 representatives within twenty-four hours after its adoption. Executive meetings may be scheduled 39 and held as often as the commission deems advisable.

40 The commission shall reapportion the representatives by dividing the population of the 41 state by the number one hundred sixty-three and, beginning with the one hundred second 42 general assembly, the number one hundred twenty, and shall establish each district so that 43 the population of that district shall, as nearly as possible, equal that figure.

44 Each district shall be composed of contiguous territory as compact as may be.

45 Not later than five months after the appointment of the commission, the commission shall 46 file with the secretary of state a tentative plan of apportionment and map of the proposed districts

47 and during the ensuing fifteen days shall hold such public hearings as may be necessary to hear
48 objections or testimony of interested persons.

49 Not later than six months after the appointment of the commission, the commission shall
50 file with the secretary of state a final statement of the numbers and the boundaries of the districts
51 together with a map of the districts, and no statement shall be valid unless approved by at least 52 seven-tenths of the members.

53 After the statement is filed members of the house of representatives shall be elected 54 according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided, except that if the 55 statement is not filed within six months of the time fixed for the appointment of the commission, 56 it shall stand discharged and the house of representatives shall be apportioned by a commission
57 of six members appointed from among the judges of the appellate courts of the state of Missouri 58 by the state supreme court, a majority of whom shall sign and file its apportionment plan and 59 map with the secretary of state within ninety days of the date of the discharge of the 60 apportionment commission. Thereafter members of the house of representatives shall be elected 61 according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided.

62 Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation fifteen dollars a day for 63 each day the commission is in session but not more than one thousand dollars, and, in addition,
64 shall be reimbursed for his actual and necessary expenses incurred while serving as a member
65 of the commission.

66 No reapportionment shall be subject to the referendum.

Section 5. The senate shall consist of thirty-four members and, beginning with the one 2 hundred second general assembly, forty members, elected by the qualified voters of the 3 respective districts for four years. For the election of senators, the state shall be divided into 4 convenient districts of contiguous territory, as compact and nearly equal in population as may 5 be.

6 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section and section 11 of this article to the 7 contrary, senators from the three new senate districts having odd numbers established for 8 the one hundred second general assembly shall be elected by the qualified voters of the 9 respective districts at the general election in November, 2022 to an initial term of two years.
10 For all general elections held thereafter, senators from such districts shall be elected as 11 provided in section 11 of this article.

12 The initial term of two years for the three new senate districts having odd numbers
13 provided for in this section shall not be counted against the limitations on years of service 14 in the general assembly provided for in section 8 of this article.

Section 7. Within sixty days after the population of this state is reported to the President 2 for each decennial census of the United States, and within sixty days after notification by the

3 governor that a reapportionment has been invalidated by a court of competent jurisdiction, the 4 state committee of each of the two political parties casting the highest vote for governor at the 5 last preceding election shall, at a committee meeting duly called, select by a vote of the 6 individual committee members, and thereafter submit to the governor a list of ten persons, and 7 within thirty days thereafter the governor shall appoint a commission of ten members, five from 8 each list, to reapportion the [thirty-four] forty senatorial districts and to establish the numbers 9 and boundaries of said districts.

10 If either of the party committees fails to submit a list within such time the governor shall 11 appoint five members of his own choice from the party of the committee so failing to act.

13 general assembly for four years following the date of the filing by the commission of its final 14 statement of apportionment.

15 The commissioners so selected shall on the fifteenth day, excluding Sundays and 16 holidays, after all members have been selected, meet in the capitol building and proceed to 17 organize by electing from their number a chairman, vice chairman and secretary and shall adopt 18 an agenda establishing at least three hearing dates on which hearings open to the public shall be 19 held. A copy of the agenda shall be filed with the secretary of the senate within twenty-four 20 hours after its adoption. Executive meetings may be scheduled and held as often as the 21 commission deems advisable.

22 The commission shall reapportion the senatorial districts by dividing the population of 23 the state by the number [thirty-four] forty and shall establish each district so that the population 24 of that district shall, as nearly as possible, equal that figure; no county lines shall be crossed 25 except when necessary to add sufficient population to a multi-district county or city to complete 26 only one district which lies partly within such multi-district county or city so as to be as nearly 27 equal as practicable in population. Any county with a population in excess of the quotient 28 obtained by dividing the population of the state by the number [thirty-four] forty is hereby 29 declared to be a multi-district county.

30 Not later than five months after the appointment of the commission, the commission shall 31 file with the secretary of state a tentative plan of apportionment and map of the proposed districts
32 and during the ensuing fifteen days shall hold such public hearings as may be necessary to hear
33 objections or testimony of interested persons.

34 Not later than six months after the appointment of the commission, the commission shall 35 file with the secretary of state a final statement of the numbers and the boundaries of the districts
36 together with a map of the districts, and no statement shall be valid unless approved by at least 37 seven members.

38 After the statement is filed senators shall be elected according to such districts until a 39 reapportionment is made as herein provided, except that if the statement is not filed within six 40 months of the time fixed for the appointment of the commission, it shall stand discharged and 41 the senate shall be apportioned by a commission of six members appointed from among the 42 judges of the appellate courts of the state of Missouri by the state supreme court, a majority of 43 whom shall sign and file its apportionment plan and map with the secretary of state within ninety 44 days of the date of the discharge of the apportionment commission. Thereafter senators shall be 45 elected according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided.

46 Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation fifteen dollars a day for 47 each day the commission is in session, but not more than one thousand dollars, and, in addition,
48 shall be reimbursed for his actual and necessary expenses incurred while serving as a member
49 of the commission.

50 No reapportionment shall be subject to the referendum.

 Section 9. Until the convening of the [Seventy-fourth] one hundred second general 2 assembly the house of representatives shall consist of one hundred sixty-three members elected
3 from the one hundred sixty-three representative districts, as they existed [January 1, 1965]
4 during the ninety-seventh general assembly. Beginning with the one hundred second 5 general assembly, the house of representatives shall consist of one hundred twenty 6 members as prescribed under section 2 of this article.
