

HB 1333 -- PERSONAL INFORMATION

SPONSOR: Barnes

Currently, "personal information" as it applies to merchandising practices under Chapter 407, RSMo, includes a person's first name or first initial and last name in combination with certain other specified data elements. This bill removes the requirement that an individual's first name or first initial and last name be included with another of the data elements.