

HB 1774 -- Eminent Domain Power of Utilities

SPONSOR: Fitzpatrick

This bill removes the power of eminent domain from all types of utilities and railroads with regard to land used for the construction of electric transmission lines originating and terminating in a state other than Missouri and passing through either McDonald or Barry County.