

HB 2175 -- CARE OF ANIMALS

SPONSOR: Anderson

Currently, an owner of an animal or the owner's full-time employees may care for or treat any animals belonging to the owner with or without the advice and consultation of a licensed veterinarian. This bill would allow an owner's agent or employee to care for or treat an animal.