

SCS SB 651 -- COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

This bill specifies that no cause of action will lie in any court against a communications-related service provider for any loss, damage, or injury resulting from a disruption or loss of communication services during an emergency situation, except in cases of gross negligence, recklessness, or intentional misconduct. After August 28, 2014, a telecommunications company may obtain certification substituting telecommunications service for interconnected voice over internet protocol service.