

HB 1107 -- SAME SEX MARRIAGES

SPONSOR: Moon

This bill prohibits the enforcement of marriages other than those between a man and a woman and prevents taxpayer funds or salaries of state employees from being dispersed for an activity that includes the licensing or support of marriage other than a marriage between a man and a woman. The bill states that an employee of the state, political subdivision, or instrumentality of the state who willfully and knowingly violating the provision is subject to termination. Any active employee who is a member of any state, political subdivision, or instrumentality retirement system who is not vested at the time the bill becomes effective who willfully and knowingly violates the provision of this bill is subject to the loss of benefits of the respective plan, minus the individual employee's contributions.

This bill contains an emergency clause.
