Offered By

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1912, Page 8, Section 139.031, Line 88, 2 by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

3
4 "192.300. 1. The county commissions [and] with the concurrence of the county health 5 center boards of the several counties may make and promulgate orders, ordinances, rules or 6 regulations, respectively as will tend to enhance the public health and prevent the entrance of 7 infectious, contagious, communicable or dangerous diseases into such county, but any orders, 8 ordinances, rules or regulations shall not be in conflict with any rules or regulations authorized and 9 made by the department of health and senior services in accordance with this chapter or by the 10 department of social services under chapter 198. The county commissions [and] with the 11 concurrence of the county health center boards of the several counties may establish reasonable fees 12 to pay for any costs incurred in carrying out such orders, ordinances, rules or regulations, however, 13 the establishment of such fees shall not deny personal health services to those individuals who are 14 unable to pay such fees or impede the prevention or control of communicable disease. Fees 15 generated shall be deposited in the county treasury. All fees generated under the provisions of this 16 section shall be used to support the public health activities for which they were generated. After the 17 promulgation and adoption of such orders, ordinances, rules or regulations by such county 18 commission [or county health board], such commission [or county health board] shall make and 19 enter an order or record declaring such orders, ordinances, rules or regulations to be printed and 20 available for distribution to the public in the office of the county clerk, and shall require a copy of 21 such order to be published in some newspaper in the county in three successive weeks, not later than 22 thirty days after the entry of such order, ordinance, rule or regulation. Any person, firm, 23 corporation or association which violates any of the orders or ordinances adopted, promulgated and 24 published by such county commission is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be prosecuted, tried and 25 fined as otherwise provided by law. The county commission [or county health board] of any such 26 county has full power and authority to initiate the prosecution of any action under this section.

27 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 of this section, in the event of an 28 emergency, a county commission or the county health center board may make and promulgate any 29 orders, ordinances, rules, or regulations in order to protect public health, safety, or welfare, but the 30 orders, ordinances, rules, or regulations shall not be in conflict with any rules or regulations
31 authorized and made by the department of health and senior services in accordance with this chapter 32 or by the department of social services under chapter 198."; and

33
34 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 35 accordingly.
