2 expenditures" and inserting in lieu thereof the phrase "ethics"; and

3
4 Further amend said bill, Section 105.473, Page 12, Line 121, by inserting after all of said section 5 and line the following:

6
7 "130.039. 1. In addition to the limitations imposed under section 130.031, the amount of 8 contributions made by or accepted from any person other than the candidate in any one election 9 shall not exceed the following:

10 (1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state,
11 state treasurer, state auditor, or attorney general, five thousand dollars;

12 (2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, one thousand five hundred dollars;

13 (3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, seven hundred fifty dollars;

14 (4) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of 15 the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census does not exceed 16 fifty thousand, seven hundred fifty dollars;

17 (5) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of 18 the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is greater than fifty 19 thousand but does not exceed one hundred fifty thousand, one thousand five hundred dollars; and

20 (6) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of 21 the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is greater than one 22 hundred fifty thousand, five thousand dollars.

23 2. The amount of aggregate contributions made by any single contributor in a calendar year 24 to any political party committee shall not exceed thirty-two thousand four hundred dollars.

25 3. For purposes of this subsection, "base year amount" shall be the contribution limits 26 prescribed in this section on January 1, 2017. Such limits shall be increased on the first day of 27 January in each odd-numbered year by multiplying the base year amount by the cumulative 28 consumer price index, as defined in section 104.010, and rounded to the nearest twenty-five dollar
29 amount, for all years since January 1, 2017.

30 4. Every committee established under this chapter shall be subject to the limits prescribed

1 under subsection 1 of this section. The provisions of this section shall not limit the amount of 2 contributions that may be accumulated by a candidate committee and used for expenditures to 3 further the nomination or election of the candidate who controls such candidate committee.

4 5. Contributions from persons under fourteen years of age shall be considered made by the 5 parents or guardians of such person and shall be attributed toward any contribution limits prescribed
6 in this chapter. If the contributor under fourteen years of age has two custodial parents or guardians, 7 fifty percent of the contribution shall be attributed to each parent or guardian, and if such 8 contributor has one custodial parent or guardian, all such contributions shall be attributed to the 9 custodial parent or guardian.

10 6. Contributions received and expenditures made before January 1, 2017, shall be reported 11 as a separate account and under the laws in effect at the time such contributions are received or 12 expenditures made. Contributions received and expenditures made on or after January 1, 2017, 13 shall be reported under the provisions of this chapter as a separate account from the other separate 14 account described in this subsection. The account reported under the prior law shall be retained as a 15 separate account and any remaining funds in such account may be used under this chapter.

16 7. Any committee that accepts or gives contributions other than those allowed shall be 17 subject to a surcharge of one thousand dollars plus an amount equal to the contribution per 18 nonallowable contribution, to be paid to the ethics commission and which shall be transferred to the 19 director of revenue, upon notification of such nonallowable contribution by the ethics commission, 20 and after the candidate has had ten business days after receipt of notice to return the contribution to 21 the contributor. The candidate and the candidate committee treasurer or deputy treasurer owing a 22 surcharge shall be personally liable for the payment of the surcharge or may pay such surcharge 23 only from campaign funds existing on the date of the receipt of notice. Such surcharge shall 24 constitute a debt to the state enforceable under, but not limited to, the provisions of chapter 143."; 25 and

26
27 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 28 accordingly.
