FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of Prosecution Services state the proposal would have no measurable fiscal impact on their agency. The proposal would have an unknown negative fiscal impact on the budgets of county prosecuting attorney's office by requiring funds to be paid to special prosecutors.

Officials from the Office of the State Courts Administrator, the Department of Public Safety - Missouri Highway Patrol, and the Office of the State Public Defender each assume no fiscal impact from the proposal.

Officials from the Attorney General's Office assume that any potential costs arising from this proposal could be absorbed with existing resources.

Officials from St. Louis County state the costs from this could vary greatly and is based on who the court appoints as a special prosecutor. If it is a private attorney it could be $250+ an hour and depending the case, which some could be hundreds of hours plus expenses of expert witnesses. It is difficult to determine the costs because there are many unknown variables.

Officials from Greene County, Jefferson County, Platte County, and St. Charles County did not respond to Oversight's request for fiscal impact.

Oversight will range the fiscal impact to local political subdivisions from $0 (no officer-involved shootings to be investigated/prosecuted or the judge appoints a current prosecutor of a county or St. Louis City) to an unknown amount of expense. The expense can vary greatly by political subdivision depending on the circumstances such as number of officer-involved shootings, who is appointed and the amount of the fee.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

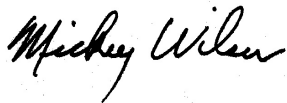

This bill requires a court judge to appoint a special prosecutor when a prosecutor in any county or St. Louis City files charges or receives a complaint against a law enforcement officer from actions arising out of an officer involved shooting. The special prosecutor must take over prosecutorial duties until the final disposition of the case.

The appropriate court judge may appoint any attorney licensed in Missouri as special prosecutor. If the special prosecutor is a prosecutor in any county or St. Louis City, then the attorney will receive no additional compensation for serving as a special prosecutor. If the special prosecutor is not a prosecutor in any county or St. Louis City, then the attorney will receive a reasonable fee for serving as special prosecutor. The fee will be determined by the judge appointing the attorney and will be paid by the office of the prosecutor in the jurisdiction in which the complaint or charge is filed.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
