HOUSE BILL NO. 1550

AN ACT

To repeal sections 452.310, 452.340, 452.375, 452.400, and 452.556, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof five new sections relating to child custody orders, with existing penalty provisions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI, AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section A. Sections 452.310, 452.340, 452.375, 452.400, and
- 2 452.556, RSMo, are repealed and five new sections enacted in lieu
- 3 thereof, to be known as sections 452.310, 452.340, 452.375,
- 4 452.400, and 452.556, to read as follows:
- 5 452.310. 1. In any proceeding commenced pursuant to this
- 6 chapter, the petition, a motion to modify, a motion for a family
- 7 access order and a motion for contempt shall be verified. The
- 8 petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage shall allege
- 9 that the marriage is irretrievably broken and that therefore
- 10 there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be
- 11 preserved. The petition in a proceeding for legal separation
- shall allege that the marriage is not irretrievably broken and
- that therefore there remains a reasonable likelihood that the

- 1 marriage can be preserved.
- 2 2. The petition in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage
- 3 or legal separation shall set forth:
- 4 (1) The residence of each party, including the county, and
- 5 the length of residence of each party in this state and in the
- 6 county of residence;
- 7 (2) The date of the marriage and the place at which it is
- 8 registered;
- 9 (3) The date on which the parties separated;
- 10 (4) The name, age, and address of each child, and the
- 11 parent with whom each child has primarily resided for the sixty
- days immediately preceding the filing of the petition for
- dissolution of marriage or legal separation;
- 14 (5) Whether the wife is pregnant;
- 15 (6) The last four digits of the Social Security number of
- 16 the petitioner, respondent and each child;
- 17 (7) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the
- 18 children and the maintenance of each party; and
- 19 (8) The relief sought.
- 20 3. Upon the filing of the petition in a proceeding for
- 21 dissolution of marriage or legal separation, each child shall
- 22 immediately be subject to the jurisdiction of the court in which
- 23 the proceeding is commenced, unless a proceeding involving
- 24 allegations of abuse or neglect of the child is pending in
- juvenile court. Until permitted by order of the court, neither
- 26 parent shall remove any child from the jurisdiction of the court
- 27 or from any parent with whom the child has primarily resided for
- 28 the sixty days immediately preceding the filing of a petition for

- dissolution of marriage or legal separation.
- 2 4. The mere fact that one parent has actual possession of
- 3 the child at the time of filing shall not create a preference in
- 4 favor of such parent in any judicial determination regarding
- 5 custody of the child.
- 6 5. The respondent shall be served in the manner provided by
- 7 the rules of the supreme court and applicable court rules and, to
- 8 avoid an interlocutory judgment of default, shall file a verified
- 9 answer within thirty days of the date of service which shall not
- only admit or deny the allegations of the petition, but shall
- 11 also set forth:
- 12 (1) The last four digits of the Social Security number of
- 13 the petitioner, respondent and each child;
- 14 (2) Any arrangements as to the custody and support of the
- 15 child and the maintenance of each party; and
- 16 (3) The relief sought.
- 17 6. Previously existing defenses to divorce and legal
- 18 separation, including but not limited to condonation, connivance,
- 19 collusion, recrimination, insanity, and lapse of time, are
- abolished.
- 7. The full Social Security number of each party and each
- 22 child and the date of birth of each child shall be provided in
- the manner required under section 509.520.
- 24 8. The petitioner and respondent shall submit a proposed
- 25 parenting plan, either individually or jointly, within thirty
- 26 days after service of process or the filing of the entry of
- 27 appearance, whichever event first occurs of a motion to modify or
- 28 a petition involving custody or visitation issues. The proposed

- 1 parenting plan shall set forth the arrangements that the party
- 2 believes to be in the best interest of the minor children and
- 3 shall include but not be limited to:
- 4 (1) A specific written schedule detailing the custody,
- 5 visitation and residential time for each child with each party
- 6 including:
- 7 (a) Major holidays stating which holidays a party has each
- 8 year;
- 9 (b) School holidays for school-age children;
- 10 (c) The child's birthday, Mother's Day and Father's Day;
- 11 (d) Weekday and weekend schedules and for school-age
- 12 children how the winter, spring, summer and other vacations from
- 13 school will be spent;
- 14 (e) The times and places for transfer of the child between
- 15 the parties in connection with the residential schedule;
- 16 (f) A plan for sharing transportation duties associated
- 17 with the residential schedule;
- 18 (q) Appropriate times for telephone access;
- 19 (h) Suggested procedures for notifying the other party when
- 20 a party requests a temporary variation from the residential
- 21 schedule;
- 22 (i) Any suggested restrictions or limitations on access to
- 23 a party and the reasons such restrictions are requested;
- 24 (2) A specific written plan regarding legal custody which
- details how the decision-making rights and responsibilities will
- 26 be shared between the parties including the following:
- 27 (a) Educational decisions and methods of communicating
- information from the school to both parties;

- 1 (b) Medical, dental and health care decisions including how
- 2 health care providers will be selected and a method of
- 3 communicating medical conditions of the child and how emergency
- 4 care will be handled;
- 5 (c) Extracurricular activities, including a method for
- 6 determining which activities the child will participate in when
- 7 those activities involve time during which each party is the
- 8 custodian;
- 9 (d) Child care providers, including how such providers will
- 10 be selected;
- 11 (e) Communication procedures including access to telephone
- 12 numbers as appropriate;
- 13 (f) A dispute resolution procedure for those matters on
- which the parties disagree or in interpreting the parenting plan;
- 15 (g) If a party suggests no shared decision-making, a
- 16 statement of the reasons for such a request;
- 17 (3) How the expenses of the child, including child care,
- 18 educational and extraordinary expenses as defined in the child
- support guidelines established by the supreme court, will be paid
- 20 including:
- 21 (a) The suggested amount of child support to be paid by
- 22 each party;
- 23 (b) The party who will maintain or provide health insurance
- for the child and how the medical, dental, vision, psychological
- and other health care expenses of the child not paid by insurance
- 26 will be paid by the parties;
- 27 (c) The payment of educational expenses, if any;
- 28 (d) The payment of extraordinary expenses of the child, if

- 1 any;
- 2 (e) Child care expenses, if any;
- 3 (f) Transportation expenses, if any.
- 4 9. If the proposed parenting plans of the parties differ
- 5 and the parties cannot resolve the differences or if any party
- fails to file a proposed parenting plan, upon motion of either
- 7 party and an opportunity for the parties to be heard, the court
- 8 shall enter a temporary order containing a parenting plan setting
- 9 forth the arrangements specified in subsection 8 of this section
- 10 which will remain in effect until further order of the court.
- 11 The temporary order entered by the court shall not create a
- 12 preference for the court in its adjudication of final custody,
- 13 child support or visitation.
- 14 10. [Within one hundred twenty days after August 28, 1998,]
- The Missouri supreme court shall have [in effect] guidelines for
- a parenting plan [form] which may be used by the parties pursuant
- to this section in any dissolution of marriage, legal separation
- or modification proceeding involving issues of custody and
- 19 visitation relating to the child. Parenting plan guidelines
- shall be made available on the office of state courts
- 21 administrator's website.
- 22 11. The filing of a parenting plan for any child over the - age of eighteen for whom custody, visitation, or support is being
- 24 established or modified by a court of competent jurisdiction is
- 25 not required. Nothing in this section shall be construed as
- 26 precluding the filing of a parenting plan upon agreement of the
- 27 parties or if ordered to do so by the court for any child over
- 28 the age of eighteen for whom custody, visitation, or support is

- 1 being established or modified by a court of competent
- 2 jurisdiction.
- 3 452.340. 1. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage,
- 4 legal separation or child support, the court may order either or
- 5 both parents owing a duty of support to a child of the marriage
- 6 to pay an amount reasonable or necessary for the support of the
- 7 child, including an award retroactive to the date of filing the
- 8 petition, without regard to marital misconduct, after considering
- 9 all relevant factors including:
- 10 (1) The financial needs and resources of the child;
  - (2) The financial resources and needs of the parents;
- 12 (3) The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had
- 13 the marriage not been dissolved;
- 14 (4) The physical and emotional condition of the child, and
- 15 the child's educational needs;
- 16 (5) The child's physical and legal custody arrangements,
- including the amount of time the child spends with each parent
- and the reasonable expenses associated with the custody or
- 19 visitation arrangements; and
- 20 (6) The reasonable work-related child care expenses of each
- 21 parent.

- 22 2. The obligation of the parent ordered to make support
- 23 payments shall abate, in whole or in part, for such periods of
- 24 time in excess of thirty consecutive days that the other parent
- 25 has voluntarily relinquished physical custody of a child to the
- 26 parent ordered to pay child support, notwithstanding any periods
- of visitation or temporary physical and legal or physical or
- legal custody pursuant to a judgment of dissolution or legal

- 1 separation or any modification thereof. In a IV-D case, the
- 2 family support division may determine the amount of the abatement
- 3 pursuant to this subsection for any child support order and shall
- 4 record the amount of abatement in the automated child support
- 5 system record established pursuant to chapter 454. If the case
- 6 is not a IV-D case and upon court order, the circuit clerk shall
- 7 record the amount of abatement in the automated child support
- 8 system record established in chapter 454.
- 9 3. Unless the circumstances of the child manifestly dictate
- otherwise and the court specifically so provides, the obligation
- of a parent to make child support payments shall terminate when
- 12 the child:
- 13 (1) Dies;
- 14 (2) Marries;
- 15 (3) Enters active duty in the military;
- 16 (4) Becomes self-supporting, provided that the custodial
- parent has relinquished the child from parental control by
- 18 express or implied consent;
- 19 (5) Reaches age eighteen, unless the provisions of
- 20 subsection 4 or 5 of this section apply; or
- 21 (6) Reaches age twenty-one, unless the provisions of the
- 22 child support order specifically extend the parental support
- order past the child's twenty-first birthday for reasons provided
- 24 by subsection 4 of this section.
- 25 4. If the child is physically or mentally incapacitated
- from supporting himself and insolvent and unmarried, the court
- 27 may extend the parental support obligation past the child's
- 28 eighteenth birthday.

If when a child reaches age eighteen, the child is enrolled in and attending a secondary school program of instruction, the parental support obligation shall continue, if the child continues to attend and progresses toward completion of said program, until the child completes such program or reaches age twenty-one, whichever first occurs. If the child is enrolled in an institution of vocational or higher education not later than October first following graduation from a secondary school or completion of a graduation equivalence degree program and so long as the child enrolls for and completes at least twelve hours of credit each semester, not including the summer semester, at an institution of vocational or higher education and achieves grades sufficient to reenroll at such institution, the parental support obligation shall continue until the child completes his or her education, or until the child reaches the age of twenty-one, whichever first occurs. To remain eligible for such continued parental support, at the beginning of each semester the child shall submit to each parent a transcript or similar official document provided by the institution of vocational or higher education which includes the courses the child is enrolled in and has completed for each term, the grades and credits received for each such course, and an official document from the institution listing the courses which the child is enrolled in for the upcoming term and the number of credits for each such course. When enrolled in at least twelve credit hours, if the child receives failing grades in half or more of his or her courseload in any one semester, payment of child support may be terminated and shall not be eligible for reinstatement. notification of the child's grades by the noncustodial parent, 1 2 the child shall produce the required documents to the noncustodial parent within thirty days of receipt of grades from 3 the education institution. If the child fails to produce the 5 required documents, payment of child support may terminate 6 without the accrual of any child support arrearage and shall not 7 be eligible for reinstatement. If the circumstances of the child 8 manifestly dictate, the court may waive the October first 9 deadline for enrollment required by this subsection. If the 10 child is enrolled in such an institution, the child or parent obligated to pay support may petition the court to amend the 11 12 order to direct the obligated parent to make the payments 13 directly to the child. As used in this section, an "institution 14 of vocational education" means any postsecondary training or 15 schooling for which the student is assessed a fee and attends 16 classes regularly. "Higher education" means any community 17 college, college, or university at which the child attends classes regularly. A child who has been diagnosed with a 18 19 developmental disability, as defined in section 630.005, or whose 20 physical disability or diagnosed health problem limits the 21 child's ability to carry the number of credit hours prescribed in 22 this subsection, shall remain eligible for child support so long 23 as such child is enrolled in and attending an institution of 24 vocational or higher education, and the child continues to meet 25 the other requirements of this subsection. A child who is 26 employed at least fifteen hours per week during the semester may take as few as nine credit hours per semester and remain eligible for child support so long as all other requirements of this

27 subsection are complied with.

- 6. The court shall consider ordering a parent to waive the right to claim the tax dependency exemption for a child enrolled in an institution of vocational or higher education in favor of the other parent if the application of state and federal tax laws and eligibility for financial aid will make an award of the exemption to the other parent appropriate.
- The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved their marriage is in the best interest of the child except for cases where the court specifically finds that such contact is not in the best interest of the child. order to effectuate this public policy, a court with jurisdiction shall enforce visitation, custody and child support orders in the same manner. A court with jurisdiction may abate, in whole or in part, any past or future obligation of support and may transfer the physical and legal or physical or legal custody of one or more children if it finds that a parent has, without good cause, failed to provide visitation or physical and legal or physical or legal custody to the other parent pursuant to the terms of a judgment of dissolution, legal separation or modifications The court shall also award, if requested and for good cause shown, reasonable expenses, attorney's fees and court costs incurred by the prevailing party.
  - 8. The Missouri supreme court shall have in effect a rule establishing guidelines by which any award of child support shall be made in any judicial or administrative proceeding. Said quidelines shall contain specific, descriptive and numeric 1 2 criteria which will result in a computation of the support obligation. The quidelines shall address how the amount of child 3 support shall be calculated when an award of joint physical 5 custody results in the child or children spending equal or 6 substantially equal time with both parents and the directions and 7 comments and any tabular representations of the directions and 8 comments for completion of the child support quidelines and a 9 subsequent form developed to reflect the guidelines shall reflect 10 the ability to obtain up to a fifty percent adjustment or credit below the basic child support amount for joint physical custody 11 12 or visitation as described in subsection 11 of this section. 13 Missouri supreme court shall publish child support quidelines and 14 specifically list and explain the relevant factors and 15 assumptions that were used to calculate the child support 16 quidelines. Any rule made pursuant to this subsection shall be 17 reviewed by the promulgating body not less than once every four years to ensure that its application results in the determination 18 19 of appropriate child support award amounts.

9. There shall be a rebuttable presumption, in any judicial or administrative proceeding for the award of child support, that the amount of the award which would result from the application of the guidelines established pursuant to subsection 8 of this section is the correct amount of child support to be awarded. A written finding or specific finding on the record in a judicial or administrative proceeding that the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case, after considering all relevant factors, including the factors set - out in subsection 1 of this section, [is] shall be required [if requested by a party] and shall be sufficient to rebut the presumption in the case. The written finding or specific finding on the record shall detail the specific relevant factors that required a deviation from the application of the guidelines.

- 10. Pursuant to this or any other chapter, when a court 6 7 determines the amount owed by a parent for support provided to a child by another person, other than a parent, prior to the date 8 9 of filing of a petition requesting support, or when the director 10 of the family support division establishes the amount of state 11 debt due pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 12 454.465, the court or director shall use the guidelines established pursuant to subsection 8 of this section. The amount 13 14 of child support resulting from the application of the guidelines shall be applied retroactively for a period prior to the 15 16 establishment of a support order and the length of the period of 17 retroactivity shall be left to the discretion of the court or director. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the 18 amount resulting from application of the guidelines under 19 20 subsection 8 of this section constitutes the amount owed by the 21 parent for the period prior to the date of the filing of the 22 petition for support or the period for which state debt is being 23 established. In applying the guidelines to determine a 24 retroactive support amount, when information as to average monthly income is available, the court or director may use the 25 26 average monthly income of the noncustodial parent, as averaged 27 over the period of retroactivity, in determining the amount of 28 presumed child support owed for the period of retroactivity.

1 court or director may enter a different amount in a particular 2 case upon finding, after consideration of all relevant factors, 3 including the factors set out in subsection 1 of this section, that there is sufficient cause to rebut the presumed amount.

- 11. The court may award child support in an amount that provides up to a fifty percent adjustment below the basic child support amount authorized by the child support guidelines described under subsection 8 of this section for custody awards of joint physical custody where the child or children spend equal or substantially equal time with both parents.
- 12. The obligation of a parent to make child support payments may be terminated as follows:
- (1) Provided that the state case registry or child support order contains the child's date of birth, the obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or administrative process when the child reaches age twenty-one if the child support order does not specifically require payment of child support beyond age twenty-one for reasons provided by subsection 4 of this section;
- (2) The obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or administrative process when the parent receiving child support furnishes a sworn statement or affidavit notifying the obligor parent of the child's emancipation in accordance with the requirements of subsection 4 of section 452.370, and a copy of such sworn statement or affidavit is filed with the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division for an order entered under section 454.470;

(3) The obligation shall be deemed terminated without further judicial or administrative process when the parent paying child support files a sworn statement or affidavit with the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division for an order entered under section 454.470, stating that the child is emancipated and reciting the factual basis for such statement; which statement or affidavit is served by the court or division, as applicable, on the child support obligee; and which is either acknowledged and affirmed by the child support obligee in writing, or which is not responded to in writing within thirty days of receipt by the child support obligee;

The obligation shall be terminated as provided by this subdivision by the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division for an order entered under section 454.470, when the parent paying child support files a sworn statement or affidavit with the court which entered the order establishing the child support obligation, or the family support division, as applicable, stating that the child is emancipated and reciting the factual basis for such statement; and which statement or affidavit is served by the court or division, as applicable, on the child support oblique. If the oblique denies the statement or affidavit, the court or division shall thereupon treat the sworn statement or affidavit as a request for hearing and shall proceed to hear and adjudicate such request for hearing as provided by law; provided that the court may require the payment of a deposit as security for court costs and any accrued court costs, as provided by law, in

- relation to such request for hearing. When the division receives a request for hearing, the hearing shall be held in the manner provided by section 454.475.
- 4 13. The court may enter a judgment terminating child 5 support pursuant to subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 12 of 6 this section without necessity of a court appearance by either 7 party. The clerk of the court shall mail a copy of a judgment 8 terminating child support entered pursuant to subsection 12 of 9 this section on both the obligor and obligee parents. The 10 supreme court may promulgate uniform forms for sworn statements and affidavits to terminate orders of child support obligations 11 12 for use pursuant to subsection 12 of this section and subsection 4 of section 452.370. 13

- (1) "Custody" means joint legal custody, sole legal custody, joint physical custody or sole physical custody or any combination thereof;
  - (2) "Joint legal custody" means that the parents share the decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority relating to the health, education and welfare of the child, and, unless allocated, apportioned, or decreed, the parents shall confer with one another in the exercise of decision-making rights, responsibilities, and authority;
  - (3) "Joint physical custody" means an order awarding each of the parents significant, but not necessarily equal, periods of time during which a child resides with or is under the care and supervision of each of the parents. Joint physical custody shall

- be shared by the parents in such a way as to assure the child of frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents;
- 3 (4) "Third-party custody" means a third party designated as 4 a legal and physical custodian pursuant to subdivision (5) of 5 subsection 5 of this section.

- 2. The court shall determine custody in accordance with the best interests of the child. [The court] When the parties have not reached an agreement on all issues related to custody, the court shall consider all relevant factors [including] and enter written findings of fact and conclusions of law, including, but not limited to, the following:
- (1) The wishes of the child's parents as to custody and the proposed parenting plan submitted by both parties;
  - (2) The needs of the child for a frequent, continuing and meaningful relationship with both parents and the ability and willingness of parents to actively perform their functions as mother and father for the needs of the child;
- (3) The interaction and interrelationship of the child with parents, siblings, and any other person who may significantly affect the child's best interests;
- 21 (4) Which parent is more likely to allow the child 22 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with the other 23 parent;
- 24 (5) The child's adjustment to the child's home, school, and community;
- 26 (6) The mental and physical health of all individuals
  27 involved, including any history of abuse of any individuals
  28 involved. If the court finds that a pattern of domestic violence

- 1 as defined in section 455.010 has occurred, and, if the court
- 2 also finds that awarding custody to the abusive parent is in the
- 3 best interest of the child, then the court shall enter written
- 4 findings of fact and conclusions of law. Custody and visitation
- 5 rights shall be ordered in a manner that best protects the child
- 6 and any other child or children for whom the parent has custodial
- 7 or visitation rights, and the parent or other family or household
- 8 member who is the victim of domestic violence from any further
- 9 harm;
- 10 (7) The intention of either parent to relocate the
- 11 principal residence of the child; and
- 12 (8) The wishes of a child as to the child's custodian. The
- fact that a parent sends his or her child or children to a home
- school, as defined in section 167.031, shall not be the sole
- 15 factor that a court considers in determining custody of such
- 16 child or children.
- 3. (1) In any court proceedings relating to custody of a
- 18 child, the court shall not award custody or unsupervised
- visitation of a child to a parent if such parent or any person
- residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled
- 21 guilty to, any of the following offenses when a child was the
- 22 victim:
- 23 (a) A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032,
- 24 566.040, 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 566.067, 566.068, 566.070,
- 25 566.083, 566.090, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206,
- 26 566.209, 566.212, or 566.215;
- 27 (b) A violation of section 568.020;
- 28 (c) A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of

1 section 568.060;

- 2 (d) A violation of section 568.065;
- 3 (e) A violation of section 568.080;
- 4 (f) A violation of section 568.090; or
- 5 (g) A violation of section 568.175.
  - and 568 not specifically listed in subdivision (1) of this subsection or for a violation of an offense committed in another state when a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the court may exercise its discretion in awarding custody or visitation of a child to a parent if such parent or any person residing with such parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any such offense.
    - 4. The general assembly finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state that frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved their marriage is in the best interest of the child, except for cases where the court specifically finds that such contact is not in the best interest of the child, and that it is the public policy of this state to encourage parents to participate in decisions affecting the health, education and welfare of their children, and to resolve disputes involving their children amicably through alternative dispute resolution. In order to effectuate these policies, the court shall determine the custody arrangement which will best assure both parents participate in such decisions and have frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with their children so long as it is in the 1 best interests of the child.

- 5. Prior to awarding the appropriate custody arrangement in the best interest of the child, the court shall consider each of the following as follows:
  - (1) Joint physical and joint legal custody to both parents, which shall not be denied solely for the reason that one parent opposes a joint physical and joint legal custody award. The residence of one of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and educational purposes;
  - (2) Joint physical custody with one party granted sole legal custody. The residence of one of the parents shall be designated as the address of the child for mailing and educational purposes;
- 14 (3) Joint legal custody with one party granted sole 15 physical custody;
  - (4) Sole custody to either parent; or
  - (5) Third-party custody or visitation:
  - (a) When the court finds that each parent is unfit, unsuitable, or unable to be a custodian, or the welfare of the child requires, and it is in the best interests of the child, then custody, temporary custody or visitation may be awarded to any other person or persons deemed by the court to be suitable and able to provide an adequate and stable environment for the child. Before the court awards custody, temporary custody or visitation to a third person under this subdivision, the court shall make that person a party to the action;
  - (b) Under the provisions of this subsection, any person may petition the court to intervene as a party in interest at any

1 time as provided by supreme court rule.

- 6. If the parties have not agreed to a custodial arrangement, or the court determines such arrangement is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall include a written finding in the judgment or order based on the public policy in subsection 4 of this section and each of the factors listed in subdivisions (1) to (8) of subsection 2 of this section detailing the specific relevant factors that made a particular arrangement in the best interest of the child. If a proposed custodial arrangement is rejected by the court, the court shall include a written finding in the judgment or order detailing the specific relevant factors resulting in the rejection of such arrangement.
  - 7. Upon a finding by the court that either parent has refused to exchange information with the other parent, which shall include but not be limited to information concerning the health, education and welfare of the child, the court shall order the parent to comply immediately and to pay the prevailing party a sum equal to the prevailing party's cost associated with obtaining the requested information, which shall include but not be limited to reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.
  - 8. As between the parents of a child, no preference may be given to either parent in the awarding of custody because of that parent's age, sex, or financial status, nor because of the age or sex of the child. The court shall not presume that a parent, solely because of his or her sex, is more qualified than the other parent to act as a joint or sole legal or physical custodian for the child.
    - 9. Any judgment providing for custody shall include a specific written parenting plan setting forth the terms of such parenting plan arrangements specified in subsection [7] 8 of section 452.310. Such plan may be a parenting plan submitted by the parties pursuant to section 452.310 or, in the absence thereof, a plan determined by the court, but in all cases, the custody plan approved and ordered by the court shall be in the court's discretion and shall be in the best interest of the child.

10. After August 28, 2016, every court order establishing or modifying custody or visitation shall include the following language: "In the event of noncompliance with this order, the aggrieved party may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation, or third-party custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may file a family access motion with the court stating the specific facts that constitute a violation of the custody provisions of the judgment of dissolution, legal separation, or judgment of paternity. The circuit clerk will provide the aggrieved party with an explanation of the procedures for filing a family access motion and a simple form for use in filing the family access motion. A family access motion does not require the assistance of legal counsel to prepare and file."

11. No court shall adopt any local rule, form, or practice requiring a standardized or default parenting plan for interim, temporary, or permanent orders or judgments. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, a court may enter an interim order in a proceeding under this chapter, provided that the interim order shall not contain any provisions about child

- custody or a parenting schedule or plan without first providing the parties with notice and a hearing, unless the parties otherwise agree.
- [10.] 12. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights 5 pursuant to this section or visitation rights under section 6 452.400, both parents shall have access to records and 7 information pertaining to a minor child, including, but not 8 limited to, medical, dental, and school records. If the parent 9 without custody has been granted restricted or supervised 10 visitation because the court has found that the parent with 11 custody or any child has been the victim of domestic violence, as 12 defined in section 455.010, by the parent without custody, the 13 court may order that the reports and records made available 14 pursuant to this subsection not include the address of the parent 15 with custody or the child. Unless a parent has been denied custody rights pursuant to this section or visitation rights 16 17 under section 452.400, any judgment of dissolution or other 18 applicable court order shall specifically allow both parents 19 access to such records and reports.
  - [11.] 13. Except as otherwise precluded by state or federal law, if any individual, professional, public or private institution or organization denies access or fails to provide or disclose any and all records and information, including, but not limited to, past and present dental, medical and school records pertaining to a minor child, to either parent upon the written request of such parent, the court shall, upon its finding that the individual, professional, public or private institution or organization denied such request without good cause, order that party to comply immediately with such request and to pay to the prevailing party all costs incurred, including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and court costs associated with obtaining the requested information.

- [12.] 14. An award of joint custody does not preclude an award of child support pursuant to section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules. The court shall consider the factors contained in section 452.340 and applicable supreme court rules in determining an amount reasonable or necessary for the support of the child.
- [13.] 15. If the court finds that domestic violence or abuse, as defined in section 455.010 has occurred, the court shall make specific findings of fact to show that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered by the court best protects the child and the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic violence, as defined in section 455.010, and any other children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights from any further harm.
- 452.400. 1. (1) A parent not granted custody of the child is entitled to reasonable visitation rights unless the court finds, after a hearing, that visitation would endanger the child's physical health or impair his or her emotional development. The court shall enter an order specifically detailing the visitation rights of the parent without physical custody rights to the child and any other children for whom such parent has custodial or visitation rights. In determining the granting of visitation rights, the court shall consider evidence of domestic violence. If the court finds that domestic violence

- 1 has occurred, the court may find that granting visitation to the
- 2 abusive party is in the best interests of the child.
- 3 (2) (a) The court shall not grant visitation to the parent
- 4 not granted custody if such parent or any person residing with
- 5 such parent has been found guilty of or pled guilty to any of the
- 6 following offenses when a child was the victim:
- 7 a. A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.040,
- 8 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 566.067, 566.068, 566.070, 566.083,
- 9 566.090, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 566.209,
- 10 566.212, or 566.215;
- b. A violation of section 568.020;
- 12 c. A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of
- 13 section 568.060;
- d. A violation of section 568.065;
- e. A violation of section 568.080;
- f. A violation of section 568.090; or
- 17 g. A violation of section 568.175.
- 18 (b) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566
- 19 and 568 not specifically listed in paragraph (a) of this
- 20 subdivision or for a violation of an offense committed in another
- 21 state when a child is the victim that would be a violation of
- 22 chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the court may
- 23 exercise its discretion in granting visitation to a parent not
- 24 granted custody if such parent or any person residing with such
- 25 parent has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, any such
- offense.
- 27 (3) The court shall consider the parent's history of
- inflicting, or tendency to inflict, physical harm, bodily injury, on other persons and shall grant visitation in a manner that best protects the child and the parent or other family or household member who is the victim of domestic violence, and any other assault, or the fear of physical harm, bodily injury, or assault

- 5 children for whom the parent has custodial or visitation rights
- 6 from any further harm.

- 7 (4) The court, if requested by a party, shall make specific
- 8 findings of fact to show that the visitation arrangements made by
- 9 the court best protect the child or the parent or other family or
- 10 household member who is the victim of domestic violence, or any
- other child for whom the parent has custodial or visitation
- 12 rights from any further harm.
- 13 2. (1) The court may modify an order granting or denying
- 14 visitation rights whenever modification would serve the best
- interests of the child, but the court shall not restrict a
- 16 parent's visitation rights unless it finds that the visitation
- would endanger the child's physical health or impair his or her
- 18 emotional development.
- 19 (2) (a) In any proceeding modifying visitation rights, the
- 20 court shall not grant unsupervised visitation to a parent if the
- 21 parent or any person residing with such parent has been found
- guilty of or pled guilty to any of the following offenses when a
- 23 child was the victim:
- a. A felony violation of section 566.030, 566.032, 566.040,
- 25 566.060, 566.062, 566.064, 566.067, 566.068, 566.070, 566.083,
- 26 566.090, 566.100, 566.111, 566.151, 566.203, 566.206, 566.209,
- 27 566.212, or 566.215;
- b. A violation of section 568.020;

- 1 c. A violation of subdivision (2) of subsection 1 of section 568.060:
- d. A violation of section 568.065;
- 4 e. A violation of section 568.080;
- f. A violation of section 568.090; or
- 6 g. A violation of section 568.175.

- 7 (b) For all other violations of offenses in chapters 566 8 and 568 not specifically listed in paragraph (a) of this 9 subdivision or for a violation of an offense committed in another 10 state when a child is the victim that would be a violation of chapter 566 or 568 if committed in Missouri, the division may 11 12 exercise its discretion regarding the placement of a child taken 13 into the custody of the state in which a parent or any person 14 residing in the home has been found guilty of, or pled guilty to, 15 any such offense.
  - when a court orders supervised visitation because of allegations of abuse or domestic violence, a showing of proof of treatment and rehabilitation shall be made to the court before unsupervised visitation may be ordered. "Supervised visitation", as used in this section, is visitation which takes place in the presence of a responsible adult appointed by the court for the protection of the child.
  - 3. The court shall mandate compliance with its order by all parties to the action, including parents, children and third parties. In the event of noncompliance, the aggrieved person may file a verified motion for contempt. If custody, visitation or third-party custody is denied or interfered with by a parent or third party without good cause, the aggrieved person may file a 1 2 family access motion with the court stating the specific facts which constitute a violation of the judgment of dissolution, 3 legal separation or judgment of paternity. The state courts 5 administrator shall develop a simple form for pro se motions to 6 the aggrieved person, which shall be provided to the person by 7 the circuit clerk. Clerks, under the supervision of a circuit 8 clerk, shall explain to aggrieved parties the procedures for 9 filing the form. Notice of the fact that clerks will provide 10 such assistance shall be conspicuously posted in the clerk's The location of the office where the family access 11 12 motion may be filed shall be conspicuously posted in the court 13 The performance of duties described in this section 14 shall not constitute the practice of law as defined in section 15 Such form for pro se motions shall not require the 16 assistance of legal counsel to prepare and file. The cost of 17 filing the motion shall be the standard court costs otherwise due 18 for instituting a civil action in the circuit court.

4. Within five court days after the filing of the family access motion pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, the clerk of the court shall issue a summons pursuant to applicable state law, and applicable local or supreme court rules. A copy of the motion shall be personally served upon the respondent by personal process server as provided by law or by any sheriff. Such service shall be served at the earliest time and shall take priority over service in other civil actions, except those of an emergency nature or those filed pursuant to chapter 455. The motion shall contain the following statement in boldface type:

- family access order or a motion for contempt that its order for custody, visitation or third-party custody has not been complied
- 3 with, without good cause, the court shall order a remedy, which
- 4 may include, but not be limited to:

- (1) A compensatory period of visitation, custody or third-party custody at a time convenient for the aggrieved party not less than the period of time denied;
- (2) Participation by the violator in counseling to educate the violator about the importance of providing the child with a continuing and meaningful relationship with both parents;
- (3) Assessment of a fine of up to five hundred dollars against the violator payable to the aggrieved party;
- (4) Requiring the violator to post bond or security to ensure future compliance with the court's access orders; and
- (5) Ordering the violator to pay the cost of counseling to reestablish the parent-child relationship between the aggrieved party and the child.
- 7. The court shall consider, in a proceeding to enforce or modify a permanent custody or visitation order or judgment, a party's violation, without good cause, of a provision of the parenting plan, for the purpose of determining that party's ability and willingness to allow the child frequent and meaningful contact with the other party.
- 8. The reasonable expenses incurred as a result of denial or interference with custody or visitation, including attorney's fees and costs of a proceeding to enforce visitation rights, custody or third-party custody, shall be assessed, if requested and for good cause, against the parent or party who unreasonably

- denies or interferes with visitation, custody or third-party
- 2 custody. In addition, the court may utilize any and all powers
- 3 relating to contempt conferred on it by law or rule of the
- 4 Missouri supreme court.
- 5 [8.] 9. Final disposition of a motion for a family access
- 6 order filed pursuant to this section shall take place not more
- 7 than sixty days after the service of such motion, unless waived
- 8 by the parties or determined to be in the best interest of the
- 9 child. Final disposition shall not include appellate review.
- 10 [9.] 10. Motions filed pursuant to this section shall not
