

SECOND REGULAR SESSION
HOUSE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR
HOUSE BILL NO. 2107
98TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

5611H.03C

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 490.715, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to evidence for the cost of medical care and treatment.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 490.715, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 490.715, to read as follows:

490.715. 1. No evidence of collateral sources, or payments rendered under subsection 2 of this section, shall be admissible other than such evidence provided for in this section.

2. If prior to trial a defendant or his or her insurer or authorized representative, or any combination of them, pays all or any part of a plaintiff's special damages, [the defendant may introduce evidence that some other person other than the plaintiff has paid those amounts. The evidence shall not identify any person having made such payments] then any portion of a plaintiff's claims for special damages that are satisfied by a payment from a defendant or the defendant's insurer or authorized representative, or any combination of them, are not recoverable from that defendant.

3. If [a defendant introduces evidence] such payments described in subsection 2 of this section[, such introduction shall constitute a waiver of any right to a credit against a judgment pursuant to] are included in a plaintiff's claim for special damages at trial, the defendant who made the payment, or on whose behalf the payment was made, shall be entitled to deduct and receive a credit for such payments from any judgment as provided for in section 490.710.

4. This section does not require the exclusion of evidence admissible for another proper purpose.

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

19 5. (1) Except as provided in subsection 2 of this section, parties may introduce
20 evidence of the [value] actual cost of the medical care or treatment rendered [to a party that 21 was] to a plaintiff or a patient whose care is at issue. Actual cost of the medical care or 22 treatment shall be reasonable, necessary, and a proximate result of the negligence or fault of 23 any party.

24 (2) [In determining the value of the] For purposes of this subsection, the phrase
25 "actual cost of the medical care or treatment [rendered, there shall be a rebuttable presumption 26 that the dollar amount necessary to satisfy the financial obligation to the] " shall be defined as
27 a sum of money not to exceed the dollar amounts paid by or on behalf of a plaintiff or a 28 patient whose care is at issue plus any remaining dollar amount necessary to satisfy the 29 financial obligation for medical care or treatment by a health care provider [represents the 30 value of the medical treatment rendered. Upon motion of any party, the court may determine,
31 outside the hearing of the jury, the value of the medical treatment rendered based upon additional 32 evidence, including but not limited to:

33 (a) The medical bills incurred by a party;

34 (b) The amount actually paid for medical treatment rendered to a party;

35 (c) The amount or estimate of the amount of medical bills not paid which such party is 36 obligated to pay to any entity in the event of a recovery.

37 Notwithstanding the foregoing, no evidence of collateral sources shall be made known to the jury
38 in presenting the evidence of the value of the medical treatment rendered] after adjustment for 39 any contractual discounts, price reduction, or write-off by any person or entity.
