

HB 2237 -- UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI EXTENSION

(Vetoed by Governor)

This bill specifies that it shall not be a conflict of interest for any county commissioner to discuss any matters, including budget matters, of any board or commission on which the commissioner serves, including the University of Missouri Extension Council.

In addition, any member of the University of Extension Council may obtain financing in his or her own name for any real or personal property and that such financing shall not be a debt of the university.
