

HB 2701 -- INSTRUCTIONAL WAIVERS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

SPONSOR: Jones

This bill will require that no regular faculty member of the University of Missouri be assigned a teaching load that is fewer than 12 section credits or less than 180 student credit hours per academic year without an instructional waiver. Each campus of the UM system may not exceed the average number of instructional waivers granted by member institutions of the Association of American Universities, plus five percent.
