3
4 "302.355. Prior to January 1, 2018, the department of revenue's Missouri Driver Guide shall
5 contain educational material concerning vehicular stops and subsequent searches made by law
6 enforcement, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following information advising drivers
7 of their personal rights if stopped by law enforcement:

8 (1) You have the right to remain silent; if you wish to exercise that right say it out loud;

9 (2) You have the right to refuse to consent to a search of yourself or your car;

10 (3) If you are not under arrest, you have a right to calmly leave;

11 (4) You have the right to an attorney if you are arrested and should ask for one immediately;

12 (5) Regardless of your immigration status, you have constitutional rights;

13 (6) You have the right to remain silent and do not have to discuss your immigration status or 14 citizenship status with law enforcement officers, immigration agents, or any other government
15 officials. You do not have to answer questions about where you were born, whether you are a 16 United States citizen, or how you entered the United States. Separate rules, however, apply at 17 international borders and airports, and for individuals on certain non-immigrant visas, including 18 tourists and business travelers;

19 (7) If you are not a United States citizen and an immigration agent requests your 20 immigration papers, you are required to show the papers if you have them with you. If you are 21 eighteen years of age or older, carry your immigration documents with you at all times; if you do
22 not have immigration papers you should state that you want to remain silent;

23 (8) Police misconduct cannot be challenged on the street; do not physically resist officers or 24 threaten to file a complaint;

25 (9) Write down everything you remember, including law enforcement officer badge and 26 patrol car numbers, the agency the officers were from, and any other pertinent details. Obtain 27 contact information for witnesses. If you are injured, take photographs of your injuries, but seek 28 medical attention first;

29 (10) File a written complaint with the law enforcement agency's internal affairs division or 30 civilian complaint board; in many cases, such complaint may be filed anonymously."; and
