FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Economic Development (DED) assume section 620.2100 establishes the Schoolcraft Ozark Exploration Bicentennial Commission, a twelve-member commission charged with organizing and coordinating efforts relating to the bicentennial celebration of the exploration of the Ozarks by Henry Rowe Schoolcraft and promoting public awareness of the importance of Schoolcraft's exploration. The Director of the Division of Tourism is to be a member of the commission, and the Division of Tourism is to provide administrative support for the commission. The Division of Tourism believes that these duties could be absorbed within existing resources. The commission members are to serve without compensation.

This proposal also establishes a dedicated fund (the Schoolcraft Ozark Exploration Bicentennial Fund) and specifies that the newly-created fund may accept state and federal appropriations, bequests, gifts, fees, and awards.

Officials from the Missouri House of Representatives, Office of Administration - Commissioner's Office, Office of Administration - Division of Accounting, Office of the State Treasurer and Missouri State University each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

In response to a previous version, officials from the Missouri Senate assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their organization.

Oversight assumes all moneys coming into the Schoolcraft Ozark Exploration Bicentennial Fund will be spent on Commission activities and will net to zero.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This proposal creates the Schoolcraft Ozark Exploration Bicentennial Commission and the "Schoolcraft Ozark Exploration Bicentennial Fund" to hold any state or federal appropriations, gifts, or other money for use by the commission. This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
