FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials at the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education assume there is no fiscal impact from this proposal.

Officials at the Kirksville R-III School District assume this would cost time and resources of an unknown amount.

Officials at the Seymour R-II School District assume a cost of $500 per appeal for the administrative man hours to process the appeal.

Officials at the Lee's Summit School District assume minimal staff time.

Officials at the Bakersfield R-IV, Everton, Kansas City, Parkway, Pettis County R-XII and West Plains school districts each assume there is no fiscal impact from this proposal to their respective districts.

Oversight notes this proposal requires a school district with a gifted program to have a procedure, approved by the school district's board of education, for handling appeals. Oversight assumes the creation and approval of these procedures can be done with existing resources.

Depending upon the appeals processes that are set up, Oversight assumes there could be some additional costs to school districts. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a potential cost to school districts as $0 or an unknown amount of costs to the district.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This bill requires any district with an approved gifted education program to have a process, which must be approved by the district's board of education, that allows parents or guardians to appeal a determination that their child does not qualify to receive services through the district's gifted education program.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
