

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 748

99TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE EGGLESTON.

1090H.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 173.1006, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to performance measures at institutions of higher education.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 173.1006, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 173.1006, to read as follows:

173.1006. 1. Each public four-year institution, each community college, and the state technical college shall utilize the five institutional performance measures it has submitted to, and that were approved by, the coordinating board for higher education as of August 28, 2014, for performance funding under sections 163.191, 173.1540, and 178.638. Each institution shall adopt, in collaboration with the coordinating board for higher education, an additional institutional performance measure to measure student job placement in a field or position associated with the student's degree level and pursuit of a graduate degree. The institutional performance measure relating to job placement, ~~[may not be used in any year in which the state unemployment rate has increased from the previous calendar year's state unemployment rate]~~ which shall replace any existing institutional performance measures relating to sophomore retention, shall be weighted as one-third of the performance funding allocation for each institution, with the remaining four performance measures counted equally as the remaining two-thirds of an institution's performance funding allocation.

2. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, section 173.1540, or any other law, performance funding allocations shall be such that the success or failure of any institution to meet any of its performance measures shall not affect the performance funding of any

17 other institution. Instead, if an institution fails to meet its performance measures, the 18 forfeited funds shall revert to general revenue.

19 3. The coordinating board shall evaluate and, if necessary, revise the institutional
20 performance measures every three years beginning in calendar year 2019 or more frequently at 21 the coordinating board's discretion.

22 ~~[3-]~~ 4. The department of higher education shall be responsible for evaluating the 23 effectiveness of the performance funding measures, including their effect on statewide
24 postsecondary, higher education, and workforce goals, and shall submit a report to the governor,
25 the joint committee on education, the speaker of the house of representatives and president pro
26 tempore of the senate by October 31, 2019, and every four years thereafter.
