

HOUSE BILL NO. 441

99TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE CORLEW.

1126H.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To amend chapters 171 and 173, RSMo, by adding thereto two new sections relating to student journalists.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapters 171 and 173, RSMo, are amended by adding thereto two new sections, to be known as sections 171.200 and 173.1551, to read as follows:

171.200. 1. This section and section 173.1551 shall be known and may be cited as the "Cronkite New Voices Act".

2. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) "School-sponsored media", any material that is prepared, substantially written, published, or broadcast by a student journalist at a public high school, distributed or generally made available to members of the student body, and prepared under the direction of a student-media advisor. The term does not include any media intended for distribution or transmission solely in the classroom in which the media is produced;

(2) "Student journalist", a public high school student who gathers, compiles, writes, edits, photographs, records, or prepares information for dissemination in school-sponsored media;

(3) "Student-media advisor", an individual employed, appointed, or designated by a school district to supervise or provide instruction relating to school-sponsored media.

3. Subject to the provisions of this section, the freedom of the press in school-sponsored media shall be protected. A student journalist has the right to exercise freedom of speech and of the press in school-sponsored media. Material in school-sponsored media shall not be suppressed solely because it involves political or controversial subject matter.

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

18 4. School districts and student-media advisors may regulate the number, length,
19 frequency, and format of school-sponsored media. Review of material prepared for school-
20 sponsored media and encouragement of the expression of such material in a manner that 21 is consistent with professional standards of English and journalism shall not be deemed to 22 be or construed as an abridgement of the right to freedom of expression in school-
23 sponsored media or a restraint on publication of the material therein.

24 5. A school district shall not authorize any prior restraint of any school-sponsored
25 media except if the administration or student-media advisor determines that the media:

26 (1) Is libelous or slanderous;

27 (2) Constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;

28 (3) Violates federal or state law; or

29 (4) So incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of 30 an unlawful act, the violation of school district policy, or the material and substantial
31 disruption of the orderly operation of the school.

32 6. Subject to the limitations imposed by this section, student journalists are 33 responsible for determining the news, opinion, and advertising content of school-sponsored 34 media. Student-media advisors are responsible for teaching and encouraging free and 35 responsible expression of material and professional standards of English and journalism.
36 No student-media advisor shall be disciplined, terminated from employment, transferred,
37 or relieved of duties imposed under this subsection for refusal to abridge or infringe upon 38 the right to freedom of expression conferred by this section.

39 7. No publication or other expression of matter by students in the exercise of rights
40 under this section shall be deemed to be an expression of school district policy. No school
41 district, member of the board of education, or student-media advisor shall be held liable
42 in any civil or criminal action for any publication or other expression of matter by student
43 journalists in the exercise of rights under this section. Student journalists who have
44 attained the age of majority may be held liable in any civil or criminal action for material
45 expressed in student publications to the extent of any such student journalist's
46 responsibility for and involvement in the preparation and publication of such matter.

47 8. Each school district shall adopt a written policy regarding the freedom of the 48 press and expression by students in accordance with this section. The policy shall include
49 reasonable provisions for the time, place, and manner of student expression. The policy
50 may also include limitations to language that may be defined as profane, harassing,
51 threatening, or intimidating.

173.1551. 1. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

2 (1) "School-sponsored media", any material that is prepared, substantially written,
3 published, or broadcast by a student journalist at a public institution of higher education
4 in this state, distributed or generally made available to members of the student body, and
5 prepared under the direction of a student-media advisor. The term does not include any
6 media intended for distribution or transmission solely in the classroom in which the media
7 is produced;

8 (2) "Student journalist", a student of a public institution of higher education who 9 gathers, compiles, writes, edits, photographs, records, or prepares information for 10 dissemination in school-sponsored media;

11 (3) "Student-media advisor", an individual employed, appointed, or designated by 12 a public institution of higher education in this state to supervise or provide instruction
13 relating to school-sponsored media.

14 2. Subject to the provisions of this section, the freedom of the press in school-
15 sponsored media shall be protected. A student journalist has the right to exercise freedom
16 of speech and of the press in school-sponsored media. Material in school-sponsored media
17 shall not be suppressed solely because it involves political or controversial subject matter.

18 3. Subject to subsection 4 of this section, a student journalist is responsible for 19 determining the news, opinion, feature, and advertising content of school-sponsored media.
20 This subsection shall not be construed to prevent a student-media advisor from teaching
21 professional standards of English and journalism to student journalists.

22 4. This section does not authorize or protect expression by a student that:

23 (1) Is libelous or slanderous;

24 (2) Constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;

25 (3) Violates federal or state law; or

26 (4) So incites students as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of 27 an unlawful act, the violation of institution or coordinating board for higher education
28 policies, or the material and substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the 29 institution.

30 5. Except as provided in subsection 4 of this section, a student journalist at an 31 institution of higher education in the state shall not be disciplined for exercising his or her
32 freedom of expression in school-sponsored media.

33 6. A student-media advisor at an institution of higher education in the state shall
34 not be dismissed, suspended, disciplined, reassigned, transferred, or otherwise retaliated
35 against for protecting or refusing to infringe on the rights of student journalists outlined
36 in this section.

37 7. No publication or other expression of matter by students in the exercise of rights
38 under this section shall be deemed to be an expression of an institution's policy. No
39 institution of higher education or a member of the institution's governing body or 40 employee thereof shall be held liable in any civil or criminal action for any publication or 41 other expression of matter by student journalists in the exercise of rights under this section.
