

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 99th GENERAL ASSEMBLY

---

THIRTY-SECOND DAY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2017

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Richardson in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Lindell Shumake.

1 Kings 3:5-15

Lord, we come to You today in recognition of the great opportunity that You have given us to be servants of the people of the State of Missouri. Furthermore, we recognize that we can only do this effectively by having the wisdom that comes only from You.

King Solomon came to the throne when he was young and inexperienced. He asked the Lord to give him an understanding heart, so he could discern between good and evil. Lord, please give the 99th General Assembly the same ability. Your word teaches us that Solomon received not only great wisdom for Governance but great riches, long life, and a peaceful reign. Help us to lead by example by being the citizens, spouses, parents and legislators that You would have us be.

Remember also those that we came here to represent.

Thank You for Your blessing upon this House, this State, and the United States of America. In Your name we pray.

And the House says, "Amen!"

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-first day was approved as printed.

PERFECTION OF HOUSE BILLS

HB 289, relating to workers' compensation, was taken up by Representative Fitzpatrick.

Representative Roden offered House Amendment No. 1.

House Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 289, Page 2, Section 287.037, Line 32, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"287.067. 1. (1) In this chapter the term "occupational disease" is hereby defined to mean, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context, an identifiable disease arising with or without human fault out of and in the course of the employment. Ordinary diseases of life to which the general public is exposed outside of the employment shall not be compensable, except where the diseases follow as an incident of an occupational disease as defined in this section. The disease need not to have been foreseen or expected but after its contraction it must appear to have had its origin in a risk connected with the employment and to have flowed from that source as a rational consequence.

(2) For purposes of this section, "hazardous duty" has the same meaning given to the term under 5 CFR 550.902, as amended.

2. An injury or death by occupational disease is compensable only if the occupational exposure was the prevailing factor in causing both the resulting medical condition and disability. The "prevailing factor" is defined to be the primary factor, in relation to any other factor, causing both the resulting medical condition and disability. Ordinary, gradual deterioration, or progressive degeneration of the body caused by aging or by the normal activities of day-to-day living shall not be compensable.

3. An injury due to repetitive motion is recognized as an occupational disease for purposes of this chapter. An occupational disease due to repetitive motion is compensable only if the occupational exposure was the prevailing factor in causing both the resulting medical condition and disability. The "prevailing factor" is defined to be the primary factor, in relation to any other factor, causing both the resulting medical condition and disability. Ordinary, gradual deterioration, or progressive degeneration of the body caused by aging or by the normal activities of day-to-day living shall not be compensable.

4. "Loss of hearing due to industrial noise" is recognized as an occupational disease for purposes of this chapter and is hereby defined to be a loss of hearing in one or both ears due to prolonged exposure to harmful noise in employment. "Harmful noise" means sound capable of producing occupational deafness.

5. "Radiation disability" is recognized as an occupational disease for purposes of this chapter and is hereby defined to be that disability due to radioactive properties or substances or to Roentgen rays (X-rays) or exposure to ionizing radiation caused by any process involving the use of or direct contact with radium or radioactive properties or substances or the use of or direct exposure to Roentgen rays (X-rays) or ionizing radiation.

6. (1) Disease of the lungs or respiratory tract, hypotension, hypertension, or disease of the heart or cardiovascular system, including carcinoma, may be recognized as occupational diseases for the purposes of this chapter and are defined to be disability due to exposure to smoke, gases, carcinogens, inadequate oxygen, of paid or volunteer firefighters of a ~~paid~~ fire department or paid police officers of a paid police department certified under chapter 590 if a direct causal relationship is established, or psychological stress of firefighters of a ~~paid~~ fire department or paid peace officers of a police department who are certified under chapter 590 if a direct causal relationship is established.

- (2) (a) Cancer contracted by a firefighter shall be presumed as an occupational disease if:
- a. The firefighter is a paid or volunteer firefighter who has been assigned to at least five years of hazardous duty as a firefighter;
  - b. The firefighter was exposed to an agent classified by the International Agency for Research on Cancer or its successor organization as a group 1 or 2A carcinogen;
  - c. Twenty years have not elapsed since the firefighter was last assigned to hazardous duty as a firefighter; and
  - d. The firefighter is not seventy years of age or older.
- (b) The presumption described in paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be rebuttable if:
- a. There is evidence that the firefighter’s exposure to cigarettes, tobacco products, or other conditions presenting an extremely high risk for the development of the cancer alleged more than likely was a significant factor in the cause of progression of the cancer, and such exposure occurred outside the scope of employment as a firefighter;
  - b. There is evidence that the firefighter was not exposed to an agent classified by the International Agency for Research on Cancer as a group 1 or 2A carcinogen; or
  - c. There is evidence that the firefighter incurred the type of cancer alleged before becoming a member of the fire department.
- (c) Compensation for cancer contracted by a firefighter in the course of hazardous duty under paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be payable only in the event of temporary total disability, permanent total disability, or death, in accordance with sections 287.170, 287.200, and 287.230.
- (d) This subdivision shall apply to paid and volunteer firefighters of all fire departments of all counties, cities, towns, fire districts, and other political subdivisions.
- (e) This subdivision shall apply only to claims arising on or after August 28, 2017.
7. Any employee who is exposed to and contracts any contagious or communicable disease arising out of and in the course of his or her employment shall be eligible for benefits under this chapter as an occupational disease.
8. With regard to occupational disease due to repetitive motion, if the exposure to the repetitive motion which is found to be the cause of the injury is for a period of less than three months and the evidence demonstrates that the exposure to the repetitive motion with the immediate prior employer was the prevailing factor in causing the injury, the prior employer shall be liable for such occupational disease."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Roden moved that House Amendment No. 1 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated by the following vote, the ayes and noes having been demanded pursuant to Article III, Section 26 of the Constitution:
